

WHAT DOES AN INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGNER DO?

Instructional Designer (ID) Serving Asnuntuck

An Instructional Designer (ID) is a specialist who collaborates with faculty, staff, and departments to create effective, engaging, and accessible learning and training experiences. Their work ensures that teaching and operational goals align with best practices in design, technology, and pedagogy.

In a Nutshell

An instructional designer is a strategic partner who:

- Helps faculty design courses and engage students.
- Supports staff in optimizing processes and training.
- Contributes to institutional success by fostering collaboration and innovation.

Key Responsibilities of an Instructional Designer

- 1. Enhancing Course and Training Design
- 2. Integrating Technology
- 3. Ensuring Accessibility and Inclusivity
- 4. Supporting Faculty and Staff Development
- 5. Driving Student and Organizational Success

Walk-ins and Appointments
Monday – Friday: 9:30 – 5:30pm
860-253-3165
Bonnie.Solivan@CtState.edu