

Academic and Social Support Network

Bar Charts and Benchmark Item Composition - Entering Students

Description - Students benefit from having a personal network that enables them to obtain information about college services, along with the academic and social support critical to student success. Because entering students often don't know what they don't know, colleges must purposefully create those networks.

