Non-Business Electives to reach 120 credit graduation requirement

To satisfy the graduation requirement for 60 hours of non-business courses, these must be taken outside of business, economics and statistics.

COURSE #	COURSE TITLE

² Please consult with your University of Connecticut Catalog (<http://www.catalog.uconn.edu/>) or UConn advisor for information on general education course selection from Content Area 4 (note that either ANTH 100 or GEOG 160 is required by the School of Business).

³ Foreign language courses are only required if you do not have three years of the same foreign language in high school. If you satisfy the foreign languages requirement, you may substitute non-business electives for these courses. Please talk to an advisor if you have any questions about the foreign language requirement.

⁴ Writing electives carry a "W" designation in the course number
