Definitions

Main campus: primary campus, including the principal office of the chief executive officer.

Other principal campus: a campus away from the main campus that either houses a portion or portions of the institution's academic program (e.g., the medical school) or a permanent location offering 100% of the degree requirements of one or more of the academic programs offered on the main campus and otherwise meets the definition of the branch campus (below).

Branch campus (federal definition): a location of an institution that is geographically apart and independent of the main campus which meets all of the following criteria: a) offers 50% or more of an academic program leading to a degree, certificate, or other recognized credential, or at which a degree may be completed; b) is permanent in nature; c) has its own faculty and administrative or supervisory organization; d) has its own budgetary and hiring authority.

Instructional location: a location away from the main campus where 50% or more of a degree or Title-IV eligible certificate can be completed.

Distance Learning, e-learning: A degree or Title-IV eligible certificate for which 50% or more of the courses can be completed entirely on-line.

Distance Learning, other: A degree or Title IV certificate in which 50% or more of the courses can be completed entirely through a distance learning modality other than e-learning.

Correspondence Education (federal definition): Education provided through one or more courses by an institution under which the institution provides instructional materials, by mail or electronic transmission, including examinations on the materials, to students who are separated from the instructor. Interaction between the instructor and the student is limited, is not regular and substantive, and is primarily initiated by the student. Correspondence courses are typically self-paced. Correspondence education is not distance education.

ASNUNTUCK COMMUNITY COLLEGE
STRATEGIC TECHNOLOGY PLANNING
Project Summary—Spring 2009

In the fall of 2008, Asnuntuck Community College initiated a planning effort with regard to technology at Asnuntuck. The President assigned coordination of the project to Barbara McCarthy, Dean of Academic Affairs and Fredric Stefanowicz, Professor of Computer & Information Systems. They collaborated with Tim Hurlock, Dean of Administration at the initiation of the project. The three assembled a committee representative of all college constituencies. The members are listed below.

Strategic Technology Planning Committee

Fred Stefanowicz—Project Leader and Committee Chair
Jay Ayotte—Coordinator of Academic Information Technology
Robert Bergquist—Professor, Communications & Broadcasting
Lynn Gregor—Director of Information Technology
Christopher Hanecak—Network Manager
Sean Kennedy—Student
Vincent Motto—Professor of Mathematics and CIS
Katie O’Connell—Director of Educational Technology
Maria Patenaude—Clerk-Typist, Student Services
Cheryl Turgeon—Professor of Computer Information Systems
Thomas Vesci—Director of Media Services

A project-convening meeting was held in October. President Martha McLeod gave the Committee its charge. The President, joined by Deans McCarthy and Hurlock, emphasized the importance of the project and the commitment of the college to this effort. The group was encouraged to consider all potential possibilities despite the fact that a state fiscal crisis was looming on the horizon.

PROJECT SCHEDULE AND ACTIVITIES

The entire Committee met for discussions monthly on October 22, November 12, and December 10. At each session, action plans were developed, with reporting due at subsequent meetings. In December, the large group broke into smaller working groups as follows:

- Exploring the “Commons” Concept—Recommendations
 - Bob Bergquist, Katie O’Connell, Tom Vesci
- What should Academic Support look like in 2015?--Analysis of Lab/Classroom 2007 Document—Recommendations
 - Cheryl Turgeon, Sean Kennedy, Jay Ayotte, Vince Motto
- What should Administrative /Office/Infrastructure/Network/Wireless Support look like in 2015?—Recommendations
 - Lynn Gregor, Chris Hanecak, Maria Patenaude

The small groups met together with Fred Stefanowicz during February and March to discuss and refine activities. Small group actions included:

- Conducting, and compiling results of, a facilities survey disseminated to faculty and staff
- Multiple site visits to the University of Massachusetts, Amherst— Learning Commons
- Discussion sessions with the Director of Library Resources and Director of the Academic Skills Center on the learning commons concept
- Multiple brainstorming sessions with administrative staff on technology issues

The full Committee met March 25 to discuss emerging technologies and the 2009 Horizon Report from the New Media Consortium.

DOCUMENTATION

A draft of the plan was developed in April and distributed to Dean McCarthy and all committee members. The committee suggested extensive edits and revision which were then incorporated into the final document.

The Strategic Technology Planning document was finalized in June. The document identifies six focus areas as follows:

- ACC Technology Vision/Guiding Principles—A set of guiding principles that will serve as the foundation and framework for how technology is developed, managed and supported at Asnuntuck.

- ACC Technology Ease of Access—A set of initiatives to ensure that appropriate technologies are available to everyone at the college.

- Technologically Experienced Faculty, Staff, Students—Orientation, training and professional development initiatives for Faculty, Staff and Students.

- Instructional Support/Technologically Enhanced Education—Initiatives regarding technology requirements for classrooms and labs, as well as assistance for faculty in Instructional Design and the integration of technology in the curriculum.

- Administrative Support/Information Systems—Initiatives related to how students, staff and faculty relate to and interact with centralized information systems (Banner, etc.) and local institutional research requirements.

- Emerging Technology Areas (Horizon Report)—Using the 2009 Horizon Report as a guide, suggested initiatives relative to new and emerging technologies.

For each focus area the Committee articulated a central goal for ACC, and then developed a list of specific initiatives for implementation. The Committee did not prioritize the initiatives. The President and Cabinet will review the report in light of the FY2010 budget cuts and prioritize accordingly.

MAJOR THEMES

While the initiatives included in the planning document are not specifically prioritized, there are major themes evident throughout the document, as follows:

- Recognition that technology is increasingly a key enabler for effective instruction and administrative efficiency
- Technology planning and implementation should take place on a regular, scheduled basis.
- Maintaining state-of-the-art technology is important to avoid stagnation and obsolescence. Staying current with technology does not necessarily require extensive funding, but rather, creative implementation.
- There is an interrelationship between staff, faculty and students that suggests we are all, simultaneously, both providers and receivers of services. Everyone agreed that a sensible, responsible, customer service approach would create a more harmonious, productive environment.
- Professional development for both faculty and staff is an important component in ensuring successful technology initiatives.

Appendix D-4

College Council Charter

Preamble

The primary purpose of the College Council is to enhance the ability of all members of the college community to work together to fulfill our mission and to ensure student success.

Section 1: Charter Authority

The College Council is a standing council of the Asnuntuck Community College Governance system and reports its deliberations to the President. The council and its mission were established in 2006 by a vote of the college community.

Section 2: Membership

The College Council is an elected representative body of all constituencies (students, staff, faculty, administrators). The College Council will be a forum for discussion on policies before making recommendations to the President for action. All employee classifications will have representation on the council as voting members. There will be two members from each of the following constituencies and one member of management.

- Classified Staff
- Administrators/Counselors/Librarians (ACL)
- Faculty
- Students (with 2 student alternates)

When a division of the college is not represented, the Council may request that the division elect a representative to serve for a one year term.

Any members of the community may attend meetings without vote.

Election Committee – Each academic year, a special election committee will be convened to administer the election process for the College Council. The committee will be convened, and its membership established, by the Office of the President.

Nominations and Elections – Candidates for membership on the College Council will be nominated from their constituencies as defined above. Elections shall be conducted by the Election Committee.

Terms of Office – College Council members will serve for two years. Members of each constituency group will serve staggered terms. Election of one member of each constituency will occur in alternative years. If a vacancy occurs on the College Council, an election will be conducted to fill the vacancy (see process below). No more than two consecutive terms are allowed.

Unexpected Vacancy – Procedure for filling of seat vacated by member prior to expiration of term:

- Except as otherwise provided, in the event a seat becomes vacated by a member whose term of office has not expired, the College Council shall:
 - Convene a special meeting of the Council, in consideration of the need to make the rapid selection of a substitute member (to ensure that the Council maintains an accurate representation of all constituent college groups).
 - Identify and extend an invitation of membership to the individual nominated during the last election process (from the same representative college constituent group that the vacated set was held by) who received the 2nd largest number of votes. The individual identified shall serve out the existing term of office of his/her predecessor.
 - In the event that the individual identified is either unwillingly or unavailable to serve, a new election will be held to fill that vacancy from the representative college constituent group, following the same nomination and election process outlined in these bylaws. The individual nominated and elected shall serve out the existing term of office assigned to his/her predecessor.

Section 3: Responsibilities

The College Council, serving as the only college-wide representative governance body, has overarching responsibilities to the institution which include:

- Maintaining effective, multi-directional communication throughout the Asnuntuck Community.
- Preserving a continuing dialog with the President, to include advice and consent, while recognizing ultimate decision-making rests with the President.
- Conducting meetings during which any college staff member may address an issue currently before the College Council.

- When appropriate, consider recommendations from other governance bodies, and advise the President.

Council Membership Responsibilities

Members of the College Council have a responsibility to represent their constituents. Regular communication with constituents will ensure the necessary information flow to facilitate the discussion and examination of college issues. Beyond regular ongoing communication, an annual meeting of representatives and their constituencies will be held.

College issues will be forwarded to the Council by constituencies through their representative, or by personal appearance, or through written communication directly to the council.

The College Council will assess and evaluate each issue and make a determination as to how it should be processed. Possible council actions could include:

1. Forwarding the issue to the appropriate college governance group having jurisdiction over such issues.
2. Creating an ad-hoc task force to address the issue, should there be no appropriate college governance group as mentioned above.
3. Requesting additional information from a functional area of the college for the purpose of providing the Council with the information necessary to determine how best an issue should be handled.

The College Council is responsible for tracking and monitoring the process flow of presented issues, and will report itself and the community (through minutes) as to the resolution of issues.

Section 4: Method of Organization

Part 1 – Leadership

Discussion within the College Council meeting shall be moderated by the President.

Part 2 – Meetings

College Council meetings shall be scheduled on a monthly basis. The meeting schedule shall be arranged by the Office of the President in collaboration with council members' schedules.

In the event of extraordinary circumstances, additional meetings may be scheduled but only with the approval of the President.

All policies/initiatives/statements approved by College Council shall require a majority vote of those present. In the event of a tie vote, a second vote will be held, and if the membership is still tied, a third vote by written ballot distributed to all members will be conducted.

Part 3 – Structure

- A. The College Council will have the power to create temporary subcommittees in order to address specific concerns or issues. These temporary subcommittees may only be formed by a majority vote of the College Council. Membership on such committees is to be determined by the Council/Committee in such manner as it deems appropriate.
- B. The Creation of a permanent subcommittee also shall require a majority vote of all members.
- C. The subcommittees shall establish their own requirements for a quorum, voting, and procedures, in accordance with the normal policies and procedures of the College Council. All final reports of said subcommittees will be made available to all members of the College Council.

Part 4 – Organization

- A. All actions approved by the College Council shall be forwarded to the relevant Dean who has jurisdiction over the action area.
- B. The College Council and its subcommittees shall make meeting agendas, and all materials to be considered at the meeting, available via email 48 hours prior to the meeting.

Part 5 – Amendments

Amendments to this charter may be proposed by any member of the College Council. Such amendments shall be reviewed as part of the annual assessment outlined in Section 6. All proposed amendments are subject to approval by a majority vote of the College Council.

Section 5: College Council Relationship to College Mission

The College Council promotes the effective participation of the entire college community in the formation and implementation of Asnuntuck Community College policies that directly and indirectly relate to the College mission through its independent actions and its oversight of any subcommittee(s).

Section 6: Assessment of College Council Functioning

The College Council shall conduct an annual review. The review will include:

- A review of all proposed amendments to the College Council;
- All proposed changes to any charters to any subcommittees of the College Council;
- An examination of all policies, initiatives, motions or statements approved by the College Council; and
- A corresponding examination of the implementation and success of those policies, initiatives, and motions.

A Committee of at least 3 members will undertake this examination by October 31st. The committee will submit a report of its overview to the College Council for discussion and action by December. The final report will include:

- A summary of the final outcomes of all actions;
- Findings on participant satisfaction;
- One area of improvement for the next year; and
- One area in which improvement has occurred in the past year.

Appendix A – Definitions

For the purpose of this charter:

Quorum – a quorum shall correspond to 51% of the members.

Asnuntuck Community College Employee Survey 2009

Dear Asnuntuck Employees,

This survey is being distributed to you and your fellow Asnuntuck employees so that we can evaluate internal aspects of the College's institutional effectiveness. The questions cover topics such as work environment, services provided by departments, and institutional priorities.

Your perspective regarding ACC provides valuable insights into how we can improve the institution. It should be noted that the survey has been carefully designed to focus on functions, services, and campus climate rather than on individuals.

Your candid response will be appreciated and treated with the strictest confidentiality. All surveys are anonymous and will be tabulated by the Office of Institutional Research. The summary results will be reported to the campus community in early April so that the findings can inform our goals for next year.

Please complete this survey during your meeting and return it to Qing Mack, Director of Institutional Research. Individuals who missed a meeting where the surveys were administered should put their survey in a sealed envelope and leave it in Qing's mailbox by February 15, 2010.

Your Opinion Matters!

Academic Skills Center

Final Report

2008-2009

Prepared by:

Catherine Juozokas, Director

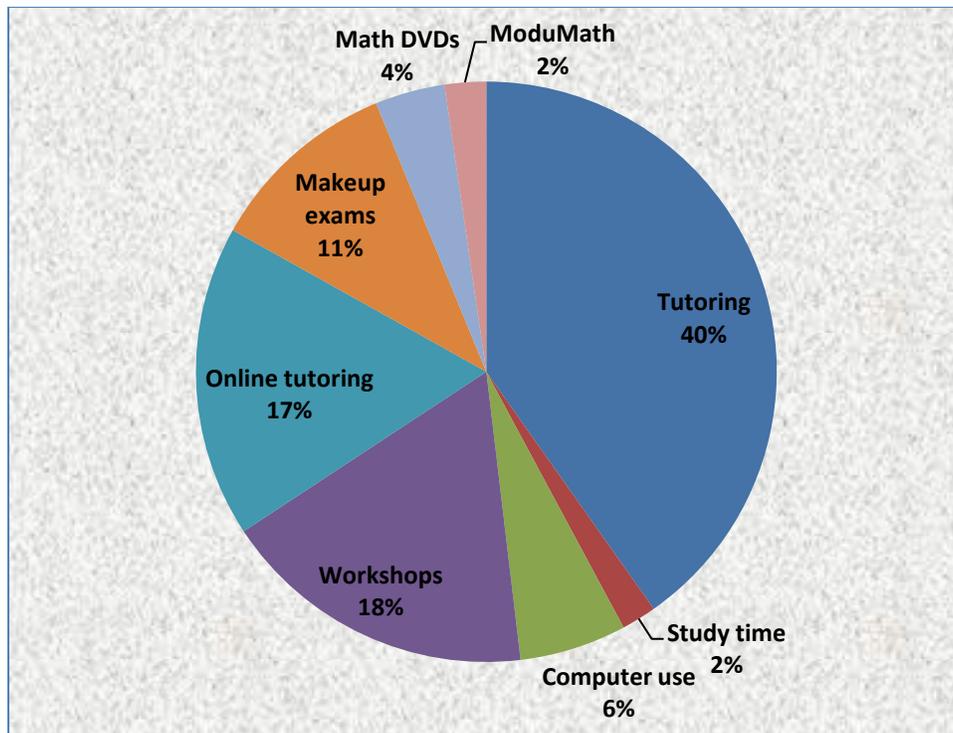

August 24, 2009

I. STUDENT USE

Approximately 615 unduplicated students accessed the services of the Academic Skills Center in 2008-09 compared to 534 during the previous academic year. Of the 615 students, 334 met with a tutor in the Center; 114 used online tutoring, and 31 sought assistance from both traditional and online tutors. 29 individuals came to the Center to study and/or use the computers. Many students accessed more than one service provided by the Center.

II. BREAKDOWN OF USAGE OF ASC SERVICES

2008-2009

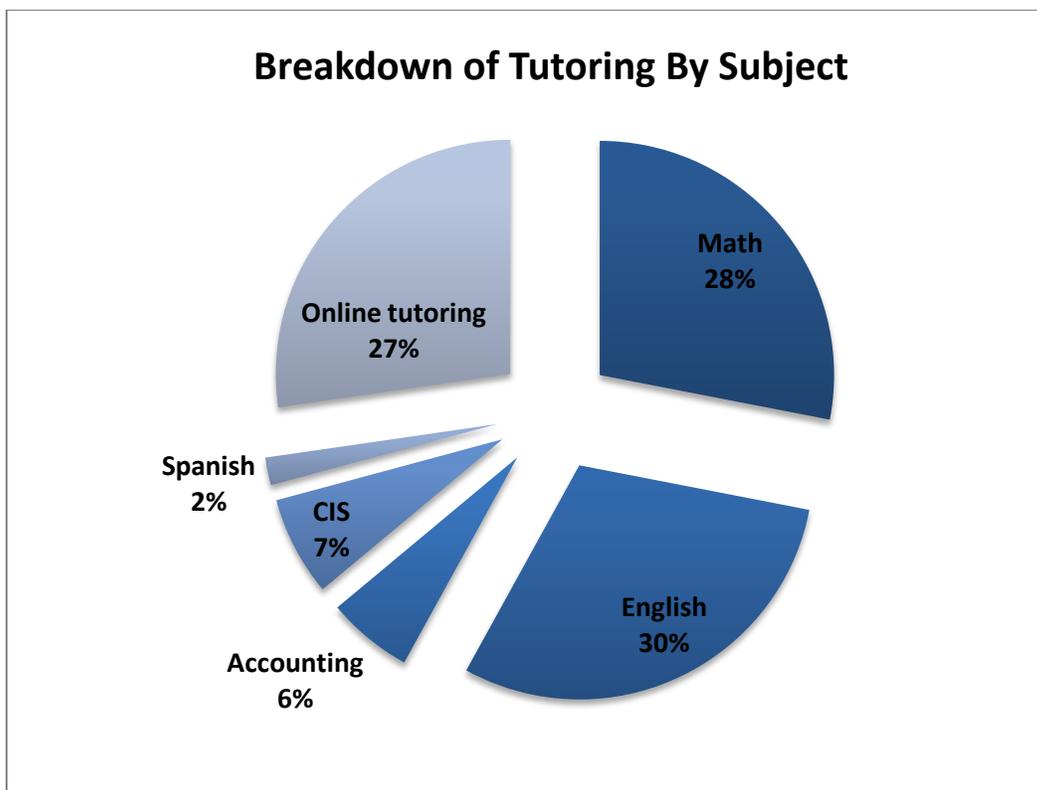

Additional notes: Two licenses of ModuMath software were purchased in May, 2008. Since then, 19 students have used the Basic Math and Algebra modules contained in the program to refresh their math skills prior to taking the Accuplacer; individuals who identify their areas of weakness and work through the program are often able to place in higher level math classes. The software also is a useful adjunct to classroom instruction because it is highly visual and reinforces concepts using plenty of concrete examples.

A proctor monitored makeup tests from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on thirteen Saturdays during the fall and spring semesters. A total of 88 students took makeup tests, some more than once. The service was opened to Manufacturing Technology and Continuing Education students for the first time during the spring semester.

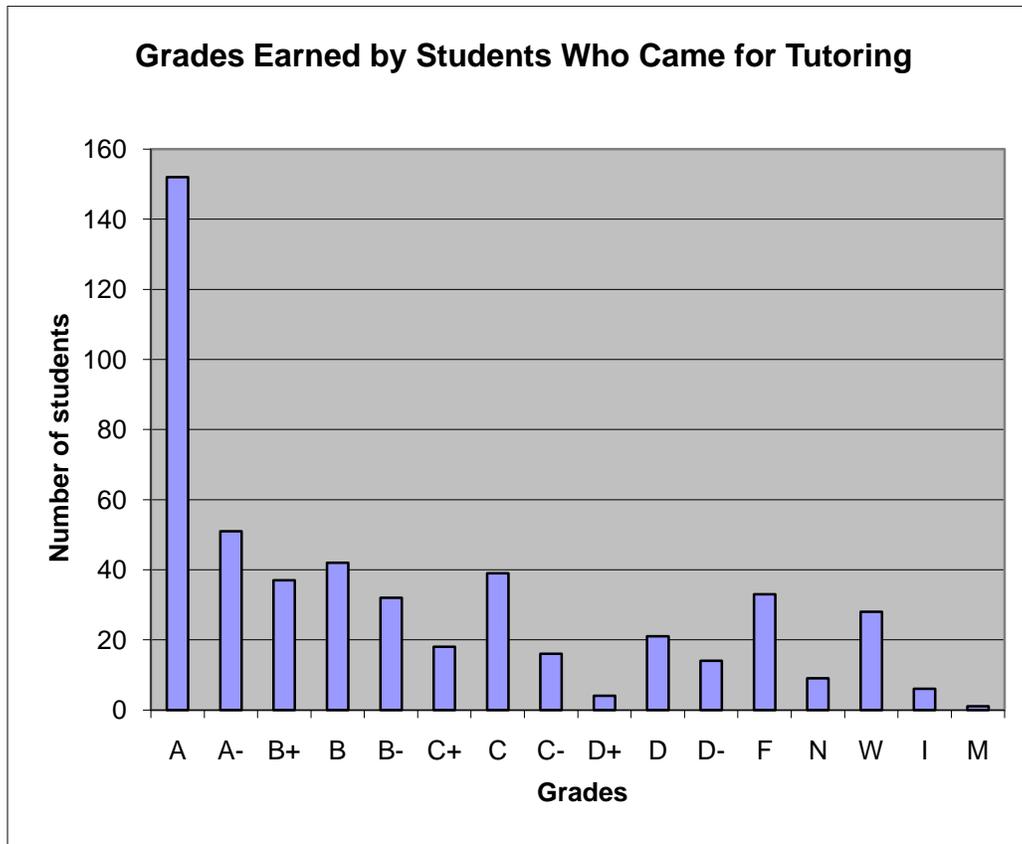

III. BREAKDOWN OF TUTORING ACCORDING TO SUBJECT 2008-2009

The subjects and hours of tutoring offered per week were as follows: English – 29 hours plus hours contributed by the Director on an as needed basis; one individual tutored English and Spanish. Math – 40 hours. CIS, including Blackboard VISTA – 12 hours. Accounting – 12 hours. Spanish – 4 hours. Science – 6 hours during the spring semester only. The Academic Skills Center also continued to hire an online writing tutor who worked 10 hours per week. A total of 147 students came to the Academic Skills Center for tutoring in math, 157 for English, 36 for CIS support, including VISTA, 31 for accounting, 10 for Spanish and 16 for science. 76 individuals came for tutoring in more than one subject. Of the 143 students who accessed online tutoring, 31 also met with a traditional tutor.

IV. GRADES EARNED

Although it was not possible to determine the status of absolutely every individual, information for the following chart was compiled from a review of the transcripts of most of the students who came for tutoring during the 2008-2009 academic year. The review focused on the grade(s) earned in the subject(s) for which students came for tutoring.

V. SUMMARY OF GRADES BY COURSE

The following is a summary of the grades of students who came for tutoring during the 2008-2009 academic year earned in their respective courses supported by the Academic Skills Center. The results may be useful when determining where students experience the greatest difficulty and where to allocate resources to foster student success.

VI. QUALITATIVE ASSESSMENT OF SERVICES

Individuals who used the Academic Skills Center during AY 2008-2009 received e-mails at the end of each semester that included a link to an online student satisfaction survey (created by using Survey Monkey). In the past, surveys were mailed at the end of the spring semester only. This year, hard copies of the survey were mailed in the event students didn't list an e-mail address, or their accounts were undeliverable. The results of both surveys are included in this report along with student comments. The red numbers indicate results of the mailed surveys.

Response Summary – Fall, 2008

2. Everyone was very helpful. They're an excellent staff!
3. The skills center is a wonderful place to get work done.
4. I felt that when it came time to pick a day of tutoring it was hard to fit a date and time into my schedule. Also when going before to the Academic skills center
5. I was very unaware of how to sign in and out or how to meet with someone about my tutoring.
6. This is a great program and is responsible for passing classes that would otherwise result in failure.
7. The tutors are all wonderful, and a pleasure to work with. Helped my grades tremendously.
8. My experience with all the tutors I've worked were very personable and welcoming. They always made me feel very comfortable.
9. It was very helpful. I used it for my first year experience class and we wrote a lot of papers and the e-tutoring was really great and helpful.
10. The Academic Skills Center has been an invaluable tool for me, and the people who work there are fantastic.
11. The ASC tutors were very helpful when it came to editing a paper that I had written and also studying for my psychology class.

1. The tutors offered some very helpful ways to improve my work. I found it very helpful.
2. I prefer to have a one on one communication with a tutor.
3. The writing help was good, but not the chemistry. Could not get it to work, the microphone was frustrating.
4. I felt that there were communication problems. Some of it was my own fault, I am sure, but I had an overall impression that I was being misunderstood and was not understanding the point of the e-tutor. I was told to remove a phrase that was central and critical to my composition because it had a trivial nonstandard grammatical usage in it. I was given a suggestion to write a concluding paragraph that I had already written. To be candid, I had the feeling that I was dealing with people who spoke textbook English but did not comprehend colloquial American, like trying to work on the phone with a tech-rep in India. To make matters worse, you get a different tutor when you resubmit your work and are forced to deal with a new and different set of miscommunications.
5. Unfortunately, about one or two times I didn't receive a copy of my paper that I wrote back edited. Also sometimes it would take a bit longer on a few of my papers.
6. I found the tutors very knowledgeable and more than willing to provide assistance.

7. Thank you very very much!

Comments:

1. We seemed to be rehashing points that I had already over-ruled Microsoft Word Grammar Checker on, in the interest of clear communication. Most of the comments and suggestions left me feeling that the e-tutor had no understanding of what my essay was trying to convey, but was trying to make it conform to a set of rigid guidelines any way.
2. I have never used an e-tutor, I've tried with previous classes and found this system difficult to work with.

1. I feel that one letter grade is a great improvement but didn't check it because it was specified to mean more than one letter grade.
2. Any review or criticism is useful, another set of eyes can catch things the first set missed. I considered and tried to understand and use all the suggestions.
3. I used ModuMath over the summer and was able to place in Intermediate Algebra because of it. Then I received tutoring during the semester, and ended up with an A- for the class. It was amazing to me.
4. Had it not been for the tutoring, I'm not sure if I would have done as well. This is nothing against the professor (he was also available), I just needed tutoring on Saturdays due to my work schedule.

1. Cathy was so helpful, I will be back.
2. Great job and very helpful!
3. I received very useful help from various tutors and faculty members 80% of the time.
4. I did not use the tutoring services. I came in to help a fellow student since the skills center was open on Saturday. Being open on Saturday is essential to many students who work and cannot seek help during the week. When I was unable to help my friend, we sought out the assistance of staff. The staff was extremely helpful.
5. I would not have passed algebra without the skills center.
6. Both times I came to the skills center Sharon was there, she was very efficient, found what I did wrong, or the solution to my problem right away without confusing me further. Aside of her knowledge she also has a very pleasant personality and demeanor.
7. I had trouble figuring out who was staff.

8. Regina was very encouraging and helpful. I don't think I would have passed accounting if I didn't see her twice a week!
9. Math tutor was fine . . . chem tutor was not helpful at all!
10. Good job! Great job!
11. The staff was always too busy helping other students in the room. As a student, I couldn't always get a lot of individualized attention. Very understaffed! I was also very crowded.
12. The Academic Skills Center is very useful, I appreciate the way it provides a printer and computer.
13. The help for a subject was excellent.
14. Visiting on Saturdays made it hard to concentrate because the math guys were loud for both tutoring and non-tutoring hours.

1. Their understanding of teacher expectations was excellent.
2. Most times I sent in a paper, received feedback, made the changes, and the next time I sent it in the next tutor would disagree with the first tutor's suggestions.
3. Their comments were confusing and one time didn't even help me in the area I asked for.

- 4. English tutors were helpful however they were not knowledgeable with college courses. English tutors only looked for mechanical things not the full draft.
- 5. Personal attention is always better.

1. Most of the tutors knew Calculus II well but there was one who didn't and I was still scheduled for tutoring with her. Ended up confusing me even more.
2. All the tutors lacked experience. It seemed most have high school experience helping students. They clearly didn't know the subject.
3. Regina knows accounting and how the class is taught, so very helpful.

1. During less busy times it was easier to concentrate. When it was busy the noise level made it harder to concentrate.
2. Group work needs to be placed in a separate room.
3. I believe a study area should be more quiet than that of a tutoring area.
4. There was a lot of activity going on during my session. I'm not sure if there is any way to alleviate this without more segregation of the Skills Center itself.
5. I strongly agree except on Saturdays.
6. Too noisy, no air conditioning, it was cooler in other parts of the building, very over-crowded, I often had to move to other labs in building.
