Becoming Connecticut State Community College: STUDENTS: The Community Colleges are undergoing a merger with a plan to become Connecticut State Community College in fall 2023; please work closely with your advisor/program coordinator to select your courses accordingly. See page 53 of the 2021-2022 College Catalog for more detail about this exciting transition!

Program Information

Program Outcomes: Students graduating with a Communications degree will be able to: Demonstrate critical thinking skills by identifying audiences for various projects, crafting appropriate messages for the defined audience, and creating messages appropriate for the media used; Evaluate print, radio, television, and multimedia messages; Reflect on the use of media messages as tools for self-expression, persuasion, and collaboration; Develop ability to work as part of a team by demonstrating dependability, adaptability, and skill in interpersonal communication; Analyze historic, current, and emerging issues in the communications field; Apply aesthetic values to the creation of audio and visual messages; Demonstrate technical proficiency in the operation of audio/visual equipment as well as editing software; Identify career opportunities in the communications field and become familiar with the opportunities for transfer to four-year colleges and earning a baccalaureate degree; Create a body of work to present to potential employers that demonstrates competency in various modes of communication.

Transfer Opportunities: Students transfer successfully to the Connecticut State Universities and are able to utilize transfer equivalencies and advising resources. The transfer counselor can always be consulted when transferring. Past students have transferred to Central Connecticut State University, Goddard College, Guilford College, Howard University, Johnson State College, Lesley University, University of Connecticut, University of Maryland - University College and Westfield State University.

Employment Information: The Communications degrees at Asnuntuck Community College are designed with the intention that students will transfer to four-year schools to complete their education. However, students graduating with their Communications associate degree will be prepared for some entry level positions in the communication field.

Graduation Information: A cumulative 2.0 GPA is required to graduate. All courses for degree credit must be numbered 100 or above. Students must complete and submit a Graduation Application to the Registrar's Office in order to graduate. Graduation Application deadline: December Graduation - December 1st, May graduation - March 31st, August graduation - August 1st.
