Program Information

Outcomes: This certificate seeks to assist people in our region who wish to explore starting their own profit or not-for-profit organization, or work in an entrepreneurial department of a larger organization. This certificate intentionally contains elective courses for students in the arts, media, social services, education (or more traditional business fields) to develop their skills both in a field of choice and entrepreneurship.

Employment Information: This certificate helps students develop the skills needed to start up and run a new business or grow their existing business.

Graduation Information: A cumulative 2.0 GPA is required to graduate. All courses for degree credit must be numbered 100 or above. Students must complete and submit a Graduation Application to the Registrar's Office in order to graduate. Graduation Application deadlines: December graduation - December 1st, May graduation - March 31st, August graduation - August 1st.
