

All Campus Meeting Minutes
October 25, 2023
via On Ground/ Teams

Guest Speaker: John-Paul Chaisson-Cardenas, Peter (facilities)

Meeting Start: 3:33pm

Next Meeting: Nov. 8th: Next All Campus with Forrest Helvie

- Michelle welcomed everyone and introduced Fred.
- Fred gave an overview of the boilers and the work that will be done in the main building and manufacturing building. This work is to be done before the big project that will be done around Thanksgiving.
- Review of timeline for when work is to be completed over Thanksgiving and review of the calendar.
- Review of restricted areas and areas where it will be ok to work from. Areas are restricted so the work of the vendor can occur without disturbing the occupants. AMTC is fully functional, along with the Conference Center area and Tower Lobby.
- There will be no impact on classes the week of November 27th.
- Communication to the students - Fred and Tim. Once plans for classes and offices have been received, notification will be sent.
- Questions were asked regarding if the college is closed on any day. The campus is open with restricted areas.
- The food pantry will be cleaned out and all boxed/canned food will be wrapped in plastic wrap or tarps draped over.
- Plastic coverings will be dropped off to anyone wanting to cover their belongings in their office.
- Discussion if a student is uncomfortable coming into the building. Will classes be offered online? Students are to discuss with the instructor. Water will be in the pipes that week, not glycol.
- Guest speaker: John Paul Chaisson-Cardenas (4:20pm)
 - DEI is staying on campuses.
 - Discussion of what DEI looks like as a system and what it looks like on the campus level.
 - No cuts in the DEI areas.
 - J. P. gave the committee $12k to use how they want. They just need to draw up a plan on how it will be used and can then share with other campuses.
 - Discussed a team building game which he will do again this upcoming Friday.
 - We need to work on changing climate at all schools—be kinder.
 - Need to serve all students in a safe space.

Meeting Concluded: 4:52pm
